Council Sustains the Mayor in His Veto.

POLICE APPOINTMENTS MADE

LEGAL TALENT WANTED TO PROTECT CITY WATER RIGHTS.

The city council last night failed in a two-thirds vote necessary to override the mayor in his veto of the ordinance appropriating $4,500 to be expended in improving State street from Fourth South to Tenth South. The vote with the mayor was six, Black, Barnes, E. H. Davis, Fernstrom, Hartand Tuddenham, to seven against, Dean, Hobday, Martin, Neuhausen, Preece, Wood and Hewlett opposing. The veto recited that the ap-propriation was insufficient to do the work and recommended that an esti-mate for the work be obtained from the city engineer with the council con-position in the fire department by Chief Bywater was confirmed, and the fol-lowing appointments by Chief of Police Lynch were referred to the com-mittee on police and prison: Joseph W. Burt and Charles S. Sperry as detectives; Morina Preece and James A. Taylor, mounted police; Andrew C. Ure and George Johnson, patrolmen; W. C. A. Smoot, jr., night jailer to fill the vacancy caused by the promotion of Joseph W. Burt.

The salary of C. M. Jackson in the mount of $104.41 for services as clerk of the board of health from Feb. 16 to March 21 was allowed by a vote of 9 to 3, Hobday. Martin and Wood votto 3, Hobday. Martin and Wood votto 3, Hobday. ing against the allowance and Black

The pay roll for the last half of The pay roll for the last half of March, which was not signed by the nuditor because certain of the clerks and other employes had not been confirmed, was ordered paid. Preece endeavored to have the peddler's license in the ordinance being passed raised from $60 to $100 a year, but failed, as the matter was laid over one week. the matter was laid over one week.
The report of the city recorder was read, showing 326 cases tried in the criminal court during the month. The receipts were $3,151.23 from fines, $202.75 from the civil court and $83 in the re-corder's office, making a total of $3,-A petition was read from Joseph Pitt and 114 others residing within a block of the Jordan and Salt Lake City canal, asking that the water of the canal be carried underground within the city limits, or that its course be changed protection for children and as a sanitary measure.

A communication from the mayo asked for authority to employ legal assistance in protecting the city's water rights in the Utah lake project, ad that a committee of the council be appointed to act with the mayor. The committee appointed was Hewlett, Dean, Fernstrom, Wells and A. J. Da-vis, with the heads of the waterworks and land and irrigation departments. A resolution introduced by Black which was passed, appropriated $500 to he used by the city engineer in secur ing estimates of the cost of paving the unpaved portion of Second South street from the river to Twelfth East street, d State street from Fourth South to Tenth South streets.

A SEAT IN THE PARQUET.

"Give me a seat in the parquet," said the conference visitor to the man in the oox office of the real estate show. "And by the way, what is the show?"

"Oh, nothing to it, only J. Donnar

"Oh, nothing to it, only J. Donnan Reavis performing his famous stunt. The Leader of the Town," responded the blase ticket seller.

When the door closed the visitor found himself on the tile of the ground floor Security Trust building, 32-34 Main St.
"Gee' this is swell," he piped. "It's no wonder the folks out in the state say Reavis is a hustler. I wonder," hummed Mr. Sanpete to himself, "If those oak fixtures with plate glass filling conceal the stage where Mr. Reavis does his aet? Guess I'll just move down the corridor to the portal under the big gilt sign and see if Mr. Reavis is on duty." So he hiked along to the cashier's cage and found enough nerve in his frame to incuire:

"Is Mr. Reavis in?"

With that never-failing courtesy that its part and parcel of the employed of the motion of the provess of the court of the provess of the property, for we are going to have the busiest building year since the boom and midsummer prices will be 10 per cent higher."

"Well. Mr. Reavis. I'll go over and draw $10,000 out of the savings bank." said Mr. Hornsby, "and I'll be back in 1fteen minutes and we will get down to tacks."

"You'll have to hurry," said Mr. Poening the saving at his watch o'cles. Said Mr. Hornsby, "and I'll be back in fifteen minutes and we will get down to tacks."

"You'll have to hurry," said Mr. Reavis, looking at his watch. "tor it is nearly 3 o'clock and the bank will be closed."

Just then the man from Sanpete slipped on the tile floor and injured his arm so badly that he couldn't write a check to draw his money, but he's coming in tomorrow to close the deal.

He'll find 32-34 Main street, on the ground floor of the Sccurity Trust building, as easily as if he had lived in Salt Lake ail his life, for "The Z. C. M. I. is Opposite."

Pure Worsted Suit

Everyone knows of the wearing quality of worsted goods. Ours are well made with serge lining, broad padded shoulder, hair cloth fronts that hold them in shape. There is a great variety of patterns. Particularly pretty and lively one in brown and gray effects. They look a great deal more.
